WELCOME TO HAHNEMANN HEALING

Hahnemann Healing is a form of emotional healing brought forward from the knowledge and the practice learned in Ancient Egypt. Hahnemann Healing is a very powerful form of healing that deals with the emotions behind illness; that is the negative thoughts and feelings towards events that have happened in a person's life that have later caused illness. This includes the emotions that can preclude people from getting better after a medical procedure. Hahnemann Healing is a form of spiritual healing.

Generally, spiritual healing and its derivatives (e.g. Reiki) work by drawing healing energy via the practitioner from the great cosmos. The practitioner is then able to disperse that energy with a lot of power and clarity for people's benefit. Hahnemann Healing works in a more specialised way. It is a much stronger energy that is more specifically directed to the points in the body where it is needed. Each one of these points relates to specific emotions. It is the only one of this type of healing in the world today.

Treatment always begins with what is called 'a balance' where the healer places one finger at the base of the skull and one at the coccyx at the same time. This is to clear away any blockages in the flow of energy through the spine. This is done as the spine is the centre line of carrying energy through your nervous system.

Hahnemann Healers are trained and certified annually. They are highly skilled at dispersing energy through the body. Once they begin their work, Hahnemann Healers watch the body as a form of energy, rather than a physical form, looking for patterns of energy flow. The healer is able to recognise the energetic call for help at certain points in the body and they then provide those points with the healing energy required to assist the healing process.

The healer will direct energy to very specific parts of the body using light touch. The points they touch are the very points leading to where the body has retained emotional hurt or pain. The healing frees the body to release this pain, sometimes over a number of sessions as more and more layers are peeled away.

Hahnemann Healing is deep, gentle, and uplifting and can form a significant part of a process of change to move forward in your life from old emotional blockages.

I am trained to recognise emotions connected to physical ailments and where on the body to best heal these emotions. I do, however, make no promises or affect any guarantees that Hahnemann Healing will heal you of any ailment or achieve any particular outcome. The healing I offer is not intended to replace or be a substitute for medical advice and care.
